

A Spoonful Of Sugar 4th – 25th of August at [the studio]
Reception 3rd of Aug 7pm

'A Spoonful of sugar' is a collective creative exhibition centered around the theme of Mary Poppins, the movie. Totally open to your interpretation and own unique take, we are giving industry creatives and artists the opportunity to free themselves from client restricted briefs with the freedom to push boundaries, be daring and essentially just have fun. Whether your work be entertaining, humorous, dark or thought provoking, this is your opportunity at creative independence. Surprise us!

The Aim of the exhibition

Bringing together creative people from different backgrounds and disciplines while forming a network of like -minded people with the aim to inspire, encourage and support each other. This is an opportunity for people with no previous exhibition history to present their work to the public alongside established artists in a fun and relaxed environment.
